DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "means for controlling the luminous intensity " and " means for not decreasing the lifetime of the LEDs" (claim 1); "means for controlling the luminous flux.of the LEDs", means for controlling the surrounding temperature" and means for controlling the electrical power" (claim 2); "the controlling means is a power supply" (claims 4 and 5); means for measuring the junction temperature of said LEDs", "means for controlling the junction temperature" (claim 6); "means for measuring the electrical power", "means for controlling the electrical power" (claim 8) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Claims 1-16 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 1, line 4, and claim 2, line 6, change "the" before "electrical power" to --an-. In claim 2, line 7, after "the current" insert --of the electrical power--. In claims 6 and 8, lines 1 and 2, respectively, delete "and comprising a plurality of LEDs for producing light". In claim 3, line 1, claim 6, lines 2 and 7, claim 7, line 1, claim 8, lines 2 and 5, and claim 9, line 1, the element "capable of" is not a positive limitation. In addition, all the claims appear to be a translated version that has been poorly done. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because claim which is intended to embrace both process (controlling the surrounding temperature) and product (..a means for controlling....and ...a means for not decreasing....) is precluded by language of 35 U.S.C. 101, which sets forth statutory classes of invention in alternative only.

Claim 1 is also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, since claim which purports to be both product and process is ambiguous and therefore does not particularly point out and distinctly claim subject matter of the invention. Ex parte Lyell, 17 USPQ2d 1548.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because claim which is intended to embrace both product (the means for controlling the electrical power consists in) and process (not increasing the current...) is precluded by language of 35 U.S.C. 101, which sets forth statutory classes of invention in alternative only.

Claim 2 is also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, since claim which purports to be both product and process is ambiguous and therefore does not particularly point out and distinctly claim subject matter of the invention. Ex parte Lyell, 17 USPQ2d 1548.

In claim 2, the terminology "by means of both controlling the temperature....and by means of controlling...." is unclear and confusing.

Claims 3-16 are rejected by virtue of their dependencies from independent claim 2.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Noguchi, Patent No. 5,334,916; Nishimura, Patent No. 6,448,550.
